Oman's Oil & Gas Procurement Potential

Oman is the largest oil and gas producer in the Middle East that is not a member of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC). Oman's proven natural gas reserves stand at approximately 677 billion cubic feet. Rising natural gas production over the last several years has resulted in the expansion of natural gas-based industries, such as petrochemicals, power generation, and the use of natural gas as a feedstock for enhanced oil recovery projects.

Oman continues its pursuit of economic diversification with procurement steadily growing to play a vital role in the field. Currently, the collective procurement spend of Oil & Gas Operators has crossed several billions of dollars. With projects worth billions in sectors like Oil & Gas, Mining, Water, Electricity and Power, Oman is looking for Suppliers offering and specializing in top quality Products/Services, that adhere to world class best practices.

To increase SME/LCC participation in local content-driven procurement activities, Oman pays a lot of attention to implementing proactive policies and investing towards skill development.

FAQs

● We are registered with some of the Operators in Oman. Do we still need to be registered on the JSRS?

Yes. Since the launch of the JSRS and its Mandatory Certification requirement, all suppliers who have been previously registered with individual Operators are expected to be certified again on the JSRS to create the common pool of suppliers.

● How soon can we be JSRS Certified?

There is no fixed timeline and it entirely depends on the supplier readiness of required documents. The process generally takes around 2–3 weeks. Completion of the process depends on two factors such as completion of profile management and submitting all documents needed for JSRS Certificate validation and its approval. Omani Companies are subject to a Site Visit validation process by businessgateways team as part of the Certification approval process.

● Is there a duration / expiry date on the JSRS Certificate?

Yes, there is an expiry date on the JSRS Certificate depending on the duration of certification selected at the time of registration. JSRS Certificate duration for Omani suppliers is 3 years and for International suppliers is either for 1 year or 3 years. Suppliers need to ensure continuous validity of JSRS Certificate by Renewing on time.
